Dear Parents and carers,

We are so near the end of term. Two more school days, but so much to still squeeze in!

I would like to use this newsletter to share some personal news with you all. I am expecting a baby and it is due in January 2015. In the autumn term the governors and I will let you know how my maternity leave is to be covered, but I will be returning to school!

Celebrations

Achievements over the year

- Joshua Owen has learnt more than 70% of the 1st 100 high frequency words
- Liam Bewsey always sets himself a challenge and keeps trying to achieve.
- Tilly Roberts perseveres with everything and has super determination
- Lacey Oakes is always being kind to her friends and looks after others.
- Darcie Earp and Jonny Oakes have scored 100% on EVERY spelling test across the year. WOW!
- Adam Baklar Kugar has shone through as an artist this year and we have seen his language develop enormously.
- Archie Shaw and Erika Jones have always worked hard and always put that bit extra into their school work, by researching at home and bringing in extra from home. Well Done!
- Matthew Sharpe needs to be recognised for his determination and perseverance; he always tries his best and is prepared to have a go.
- Alice Kerby and Natalie Barton have read so much over this year, well done girls!
- Bobby More has made super progress and worked hard in all subjects.
- Roxy Thomas ensures all her work is beautifully neat and well-presented all the time. She tries hard in everything she does.
- Henry Bull is always helpful especially in ICT. He can be relied upon to do a job really well.
- Eva Harrison wrote a particularly good story this term - well done!

News

KS2 performance

The production of 'The Jungle Book' was a huge success and the cast should be very proud of their achievements. They all worked so hard and put on a fabulous show. Thank you to all the adults who helped to put it together and to the FOM's for serving refreshments in such a hot kitchen!
