Breakfast Club

Please remember to pay breakfast club on a daily basis or in advance. We cannot allow your child to stay for breakfast club without payment. Thank you for your cooperation.

Miss J Holme

Next Friday is Miss Holme's last day teaching Willow Class. After this Mrs Johnson will step in for 3 weeks before Mrs Foster returns full time on 29th February.

Uniform

Please be reminded that we expect every pupil to be in full school uniform, including black school shoes. If they wear boots to and from school due to the weather, they are expected to change their shoes for the school day.

Books

If you have any books at home that your child no longer reads, please consider donating them to school. We would love to increase our book supply and donations would be gratefully received.

KS1

Thanks for the feedback regarding morning drop off, we are really pleased that it is working. We hope you like the opportunity to stay on a Friday and see what your child has been up to, but if this doesn't work for your child, feel free to drop off as normal.

News

Willow class trip

On Wednesday Willow class visited the Royal Opera House to see the Royal Ballet perform Frederick Ashton's The Two Pigeons and Rhapsody.

The children visited Covent Garden where they had their lunch. We then walked around the Royal Opera house to see where the Ballerinas train and the tunnel that they use to move between the Royal Opera House and the Royal School of Ballet.

We then sat to watch the performances and were lucky to be allowed to visit a dance studio in the Royal Opera House.

The children saw many sites from the coach on the way such as The Tower of London and the Olympic site.

Attendance

We will report each class attendance totals. We are aiming for 98% attendance in each class, each week.
